

Kingston and Richmond Domestic and Sexual Violence Training programme

Kingston and Richmond domestic and sexual violence training programme is free to access for any professionals or volunteers working in either borough.

To book a place, please access the 'CPD online' system at www.afccpdonline.co.uk to register and choose the course you wish to attend. Please note that although the training is hosted on the 'Achieving for Children' site it is available free of charge to statutory and voluntary sector staff working with both adults and /or children. Courses currently available to book are listed below.

Date	Course title	Time	Venue
e-learning	Domestic Violence : an introduction	Takes about 1-1.5 hours to complete	e-learning course : Access at http://evolve.learningpool.com
Tuesday 21 st July 2015	Working with adolescents who use or experience violence within their relationships	09.30 – 12.30	King Charles Centre, Hollyfield Road, Surbiton
Wednesday 30 th September 2015	Domestic abuse; Impact on victims (half day awareness course)	09.30 – 12.30	King Charles Centre, Hollyfield Road, Surbiton
Monday 19 October 2015	Domestic abuse, Risk assessment and MARAC	09:30 - 16:30	King Charles Centre, Hollyfield Road, Surbiton
Monday 30 th November 2015	Domestic abuse; Impact on victims (half day awareness course)	12.30-16.30	Twickenham Training Centre, 53 Grimwood Road, TW1 1BY
Tuesday 12 January 2016	Working with adolescents who use or experience violence within their relationships	09:30 - 16:30	King Charles Centre, Hollyfield Road, Surbiton
Monday 29 th February 2016	Domestic abuse; Impact on victims (half day awareness course)	09:30 - 12:30	King Charles Centre, Hollyfield Road, Surbiton
Wednesday 11 May 2016	Domestic abuse, Risk assessment and MARAC	09:30 - 16:30	Twickenham Training Centre, 53 Grimwood Road, TW1 1BY

For further information or assistance with registration and booking, please contact the Children's Workforce Development Team: training@achievingforchildren.org.uk or phone 020 8831 6353.

FGM e-learning training can be accessed at <https://www.fgmelearning.co.uk/>